Repeat, repeat, repeat.

By Darrel the Librarian

Clifford the big red dog has become a big franchise. The repetitiveness of the series soon becomes boring to adults. Basic plot: Clifford gets in trouble, but he's such a good dog, it always works out in the end. BUT, the kids in my library like them. They check them out over and over and the lessons that are taught and the good fun makes them good, but not great books.

My little 5 year old sister love this book. She'll come up to me and ask me to read it. It also teaches them that being good isn't always the best.
