Food, food, food

By Just Another Mom

I bought this because I already owned the other cookbook put out by the Scotto family. I was hoping that this one contained some of the recipes I had hoped to find in the first one but, alas, they weren't in this one either. But instead there are plenty of other great recipes to try. And plenty more Italian history to learn by reading through this cookbook.

One of my Favourites

By Samiet

This is an amazing cook book! I do a lot of cooking, and this is by far one of my favourite books. The recipes do take a while to do - this isn't to make a Monday night meal - and you need to know your way around the kitchen as some of the measurements need to be tweaked. However, every single recipe has turned out beautifully. I do find that the recipes make quite a lot of food, so often I split it up and freeze half. Everyone who has had one of these meals at my place raves. I've bought it for many of my friends as a gift. There aren't pictures for each recipe, which doesn't bother me, but may be important to some of you.

Great Book! Great Place to eat!

By A Customer

After watching the Scotto family on FOOD TV, It was a must to buy the cookbook. The mouth-watering recipes are a delight! We decided to visit the posh Frescobyscotto restaurant after hearing the great reviews. YUMMY! The food was AWESOME! My boyfriend is Italian and usually critiques every Italian restaurant, but Scotto's restaurant by far is one of his favorites.
