and they enjoyed reading the stories

By Linda

This book is witty and hilarious. I bought it for someone in med school, and they enjoyed reading the stories. Each chapter is really short, and they're not really linked to each other, so this is definitely a book that can be read for fun by a busy person (such as someone in med school). There's also a surprising amount of actual advice hidden in a book aiming to be funny. Would recommend!

Kill As Few Patients as Possible

By DRPL

I am a woman surgeon at Harvard Medical School (48 years). For the past 5 years I have presented this very funny but useful book to my graduating residents and fellows. They all love it. Recommend it to all - including non-doctors.

Short and to the point.

By Shilo

Bought this as a gift for one of the doctors I work with, but I cheated and read it first. Very enjoyable, short (1-2 page) chapters. Clever and thought-provoking at the same time. The perfect bathroom reader.
