An Intelligent Comedy - so Refreshing

By Metella

Suspenseful and funny - Plus set in the future with lasers, all types of alien species ...

The pace was fast, interesting and this book had multiple lines to the story - which I liked.

It really was unlike anything I've read over the last 20 years - a real mix of all the good stuff - If you like mystery books you will like this. If you like sci fi you will like this. And I loved that the vocab wasn't dumbed down. Very pleased with this book and it was a FULL STORY - start to finish - but left enough character endings open to have a nice series start from this if the author is so moved. Looking forward to it.

Diverting if not especially memorable.

By Victor R. Casados

This story is a sort of Holmes/Murder On the Orient Express pastiche and does a passable job of it.

Set on a luxury space-liner populated by the usual mix of humans and (in some cases highly improbable) aliens.

It is a murder mystery with a sub-plot or two and a bit of a twist at the end.

I spent a couple of hours being entertained by this story, although I was not inclined to seek out more by this author.

Not a bad tale, but not a fine one either.

Still, it is worth a read - if only once.

OK

By Patricia Kenworthy

Not great literature, but a fun story in a sci-fi sherlock Holmes sort of way.
