I'm not a bad person, but maybe I did a bad thing

Life is good for Anna Wright. She's a successful media executive working for one of the UK's largest TV corporations. She's got a great boyfriend, some close friends and a lovely home. She adores her dog, Wispa, and she loves to run to help her destress.

But Anna's perfect life starts to crumble from the moment when, out jogging on the Heath one day, she meets a handsome stranger. She takes a route into unfamiliar territory, and then she has to face the consequences.

There's a dark, growing creepiness as the atmosphere becomes unsettled, and, as Anna's professional life becomes increasingly pressured and poisonous, her obsession with the intriguing stranger intensifies.

Unbelievable

By NicShef♥?Reading

I am flabbergasted as to how to rate this book. It's totally original but very strange. There are parts that are a 1 star because they are so ridiculous, and for a smart woman this leading lady just keeps doing some reckless stuff and other parts that are 5 star as the pace and energy of the writing is addictive. It truly was exhausting being in this women's head.

Despite not liking the main character, Anna, I was unable to put this book down. I found the main character to be shallow and unbelievable in that her behaviour does not make sense to me. Loved the dog - Wispa, which was the most believable facet to the book. However none of this deterred me from wanting to know what was going on in this women's life.

Rebound is the debut novel from a very promising writer; Aga Lesiewicz. Not only is there a man cloaked in mystery, dubbed "the Dior man" running into Anna randomly on the picturesque Hampstead Heath, but there is the neighbour who seems to be taking too much of an interest in Anna, and the paranoia that builds with gifts of flowers and vandalism. When the count of sexual assaults, and, eventually murders grows, Anna finds herself caught up in a dramatic storyline. Ultimately, I've settled on 4 stars because I have a friend who LOVED it. So I do think it may have clouded my expectation.... Either way, be prepared to suspend reality.

Impressive Debut

By Jackie Roche

I would like to thank NetGalley and Pan Macmillan for giving me the opportunity to read this in exchange for an honest and open review.

This is a new author to me so I wasn't sure what to expect.

What I got was a tense psychological thriller that had me hooked from the start.

Anna is a successful media executive with a handsome boyfriend and a chocolate labrador called Wispa.

When she meets a new man strange things start to happen.

This is a book of two parts. The first about Anna and her new man and the second is concerned with trying to solve the mystery of the strange happenings.

I thought I had worked out who was responsible but I was totally wrong.

This was a very impressive debut novel and I will certainly look out for more by this author.

Enjoyed every page

By luvtoread

This book is like a breath of fresh air, being different from the usual thriller. The writing is tight and the pace fast. I appreciated the fact that there was no gore or graphic violence. The mark of a great psychological thriller is that the reader is engaged with the mental twists and turns without being distracted by blood and gore. The dog was adorable and very much part of the story. I almost gave the book only 4 stars because of the annoying way Anna blindly put herself in danger over and over again; but the writing was so good and I enjoyed it so much that I decided to overlook that and give it 5 stars.
