Can there ever be forgiveness

By Lisa

Seyed is a prince. He has always been a prince but when he was sent to live in the states with relatives he had to lie about who he really was. He also had to lie about being with someone.

Claire became friends with Seyed. She became really close to him and thought he had thought the same way.

When Seyed left the states to head back home he ended up have to cut of contact with Claire. Now a sometime later Seyed is free from his arrangement that he goes after Claire. But will Claire find room for forgiveness or will she think that this is all something that he ha planned for other reasons. Will he convince Claire of his true feelings or will he let her go.

Will try love win?

By kay

Seed is a prince from Kabir and when his engagement ends after his fiancé becomes pregnant by another, Seyed sees it as a second chance with the woman he truly loves, Claire. Claire runs her families restaurant and is also the baker. She has dreams of opening her own bakery some day and has never forgotten her true love Seyed. When he shows up in her restaurant years later after no communication she is unsure of his motives. After she travels to his home country and finds out he is a prince she has doubts of his true feelings. Can they work out their problems and live happily ever after? You have to get this short story to find out!

A must read!

By Christina

This was a great book.. I have never read anything from this author before but I am truly glad I did. What a great story about a couple who both thought all they would ever be is friends but secretly holding on to the hope that one day they will be together forever. This is a must read. A very sweet story of Seyed and Clair to people who have totally different realities but will make a great future together.
